

K2M Hosts the World's Leading Spine Surgeons & Features 3D Balance ACS™ Platform at Meeting of Minds™ 2017

Advanced product training & clinical symposium in 3D spinal solutions reinforce K2M's global commitment to continued medical education

LEESBURG, Va., May 01, 2017 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- K2M Group Holdings, Inc. (NASDAQ:KTWO) (the "Company" or "K2M"), a global leader of complex spine and minimally invasive solutions focused on achieving three-dimensional Total Body Balance™, hosted more than 100 international spine surgeons from 22 countries for its annual Meeting of Minds™ in Lisbon, Portugal, from April 28—29, 2017. Meeting of Minds is a premier, world-class curriculum in the latest approaches and techniques for the operative treatment of spinal disorders. The Company also demonstrated its Balance ACS™ (or BACS™) platform, which applies three-dimensional solutions across the entire clinical care continuum to help drive quality outcomes in spine patients.

"K2M just concluded a highly successful and educational meeting in Lisbon," stated Harry Shufflebarger, MD, director of the Division of Spinal Surgery at Nicklaus Children's Hospital in Miami, Florida, past president of the Scoliosis Research Society, former professor of orthopedic surgery and neurosurgery, and current clinical professor of orthopaedics and rehabilitation at the University of Miami, and a guest lecturer at this year's Meeting of Minds. "Participants heard world experts lecture and discuss a variety of spinal topics. These include pediatric and adult topics of all etiologies. I rate this as a top-level educational event."

Meeting of Minds—the largest of K2M's many Medical Education programs—featured more than 60 interactive discussions, case presentations and hands-on demonstrations on key deformity topics in areas as diverse as adult, adolescent and cervical deformity, revision surgery, minimally invasive surgery, proximal junctional kyphosis, as well as transformative solutions for achieving three-dimensional Total Body Balance in spine patients.

"Meeting of Minds was a great, well-planned meeting," stated Anant Tambe, FRCS, MCh, MS, DNB, a scoliosis surgeon at Royal Manchester Children's Hospital in Manchester, U.K. "The opportunity to listen to senior pioneers in spinal surgery and hear their views made it really worthwhile to be there. It lived up to, and exceeded, all expectations."

Meeting of Minds was chaired by distinguished leaders in spine surgery, including Oheneba Boachie-Adjei, MD, FOCOS Orthopaedic Hospital, Accra, Ghana; René Castelein, MD, PhD, University Medical Centre Utrecht, The Netherlands; Martin Gehrchen, MD, PhD, Copenhagen University, Denmark; Kan Min, MD, Swiss Scoliosis, Zurich, Switzerland; and John P. Kostuik, MD, Chief Medical Officer and Co-founder of K2M, and professor emeritus at Johns Hopkins University. The faculty also featured 14 additional leaders in spine surgery to meet the increasing global demand for comprehensive deformity education.

"K2M is proud to have welcomed some of the world's top spine surgeons to our annual Meeting of Minds, which featured the latest clinical solutions and advancements in spine surgery," said Dr. Kostuik. "At this year's meeting, we also showcased BACS—a comprehensive platform of products, services and research—allowing surgeons to holistically manage the patient experience across the entire episodic care continuum. We are pleased to offer medical education curriculums, coupled with our comprehensive BACS platform, with the goal of transforming spine surgery and improving the lives of patients around the world."

BACS provides solutions focused on achieving balance of the spine by addressing each anatomical vertebral segment with a 360-degree approach to the axial, coronal, and sagittal planes, emphasizing Total Body Balance as an important component of surgical success.
