

K2M's Gregory Cole Named Private Company CFO of the Year

LEESBURG, VA ... June 2, 2011 – K2M, Inc., a spinal device company developing innovative solutions for the treatment of complex spinal pathologies, today announced that Chief Financial Officer, Gregory Cole, received the Northern Virginia Technology Council (NVTC) Private Company CFO of the Year Award. The winners were revealed at the 15th Annual Greater Washington Technology CFO Awards Gala on Wednesday, June 1st, at the Ritz-Carlton Tysons Corner in Virginia.

NVTC is the largest technology council in the nation and is recognized as the leader in providing its technology community with networking and educational events, specialized services and benefits, and public policy advocacy.

Mr. Cole has more than 20 years of financial and management experience with both public and private companies, primarily in the technology and health care fields.

"I am truly honored to be named Private Company CFO of the Year and I am proud to accept this award on behalf of the K2M team," stated Gregory Cole, K2M's Chief Financial Officer. "This achievement reflects K2M's continuous growth and financial strength as we move closer towards our goal of becoming a leader in the global spine market."

"Greg is a critical part of the K2M team," stated Eric Major, K2M's President and CEO. "We are extremely proud of Greg and this recognition as CFO of the Year."
